NO NEW HAT FOR YEARS.

AUSTIN. Tex. March 27.—Because his view was obstructed by the hats of women when he attended Easter church services, Senator H. W. Breisford to-day introduced a bill in the Legislature making it unlawful for any female to wear in church or any public gathering any hat or head dress having a crown or any ornament exceeding two inches in height or a brim more than four inches wide. The penalty provision reads: "Any person who shall violate the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon convictions who all cise has failed. Cuticura inches wide. The penalty provision preads: "Any person who shall violate the provisions of this act shall be gullity of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be deprived of the privilege of purchasing any new hat for a period of three years and then only be allowed to purchase one costing less than $2 and to be of uniform design, cost and presentation."
